

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE – FARA MEL

FULCRUM CONCEPTS' MODULAR EFFECTS LAUNCHER (MEL) PROVIDES A MODERN, FLEXIBLE WEAPONIZATION SYSTEM FOR THE FUTURE OF ARMY AVIATION

Multiple weapons and mission configurations to support Future Attack Reconnaissance Aircraft

Fulcrum Concepts, LLC, a leading provider of responsive and comprehensive weapons system integration capabilities, answered the U.S. Army's need for a weapons launcher and developed a jettisonable modular open systems approach with the ability to carry a variety of store combinations, including missiles, rockets, and air-launched effects.

The FARA Competitive Prototypes will be equipped with the Fulcrum-developed MEL. The U.S. Army Future Vertical Lift Cross-Functional Team demonstrated during a successful test flight of the prototype MEL on a surrogate UH-60M aircraft in the fall of 2021.
